Article 22. Producers and Disseminators of Public Information and their Participants

1. The relations between the producers and disseminators of public information and their participants shall be governed by this Law and other laws, legal acts and agreements between the parties.

2. All persons, except for the cases specified in this Law and other laws of the Republic of Lithuania, may produce and/or disseminate information in the Republic of Lithuania. Only legal persons or legal persons established in the states of the European Economic Area and organisations which have no legal personality as well as branches of such legal persons and organisations which have no legal personality established in the Republic of Lithuania and in other states of the European Economic Area may be engaged in licensed radio and/or television programme broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting activities in the Republic of Lithuania.

3. Upon selling or otherwise transferring at least 10% of the broadcaster's or re-broadcaster's shares (interests, member shares), a licence holder must, not later than within 30 days of the transfer of ownership rights, inform thereof the Radio and Television Commission of Lithuania (hereinafter referred to as the "Commission").

4. Where upon selling or otherwise transferring the shares (interests, member shares) of a broadcaster and/or re-broadcaster holding a broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licence there is a change of the owner (owners) of the majority holding or where the control (management) of a licence holder is transferred to another person (persons) on other grounds, the persons intending to transfer and acquire the shares (interests, member shares) and/or control (management) must obtain a written consent of the Commission.

5. The Commission may refuse to give its consent to the transfer of a broadcaster's and/or re-broadcaster's shares (interests, member shares) and/or its control (management) if:

1) persons who intend to transfer and acquire the broadcaster's and/or re-broadcaster's shares (interests, member shares) and/or its control (management) have not submitted the data required by the Commission or have submitted incorrect data;

2) persons who intend to transfer and acquire the broadcaster's and/or re-broadcaster's shares (interests, member shares) and/or its control (management) are prohibited, in cases provided for by laws, from being participants of producers and/or disseminators of public information;

3) the transfer and acquisition of the broadcaster's and/or re-broadcaster's shares (interests, member shares) and/or its control (management) results in concentration and an authorisation from the Competition Council has not been obtained where such an authorisation is required under the Law on Competition.

6. State and municipal institutions and agencies (except for research and educational establishments), banks and political parties may not be producers of public information and/or their participants; however, they may publish non-periodical informational publications and have the information society media intended to inform the public of their activities, unless otherwise provided for by laws.

7. Every producer of public information or a participant thereof must appoint a person (editor-in-chief, editor, programme host or another person) responsible for the content of the media. Where the same natural person is both a producer of public information and a participant thereof, he shall have responsibility for the content of his media.

8. Producers of public information:

1) in disseminating information to the public, may not distort correct and impartial information and opinions and use that for sordid purposes. Public information shall not be compatible with journalistic campaigns which are held based on prejudice or to satisfy group or political interests;

2) must be objective and impartial and to provide as many opinions as possible on the controversial issues relating to politics, economy and other issues of public life;

3) when recording various public actions – meetings, marches, strikes, pickets, etc. – may not instigate to take unlawful or desperate actions;

4) may not publish unfounded, unchecked accusations which are not based on facts;

5) must protect and respect a person's right to privacy in the event of death or disease, must not mention personal data when announcing the news about suicides or suicide attempts;

6) may not promote or depict smoking, drinking or the use of narcotic drugs in an attractive manner. Depiction of smoking, drinking or drug addiction shall be justified only as a context when seeking authenticity;

7) may not disseminate biased and partial information about religion, may not discriminate against other religions;

8) must clearly introduce religious organisations and their views to avoid misleading people;

9) may not promote supernatural, unreal characteristics of people or their groups or paranormal phenomena, with the exception of cases where such information is presented for entertainment or as a research object. They may not create an impression that astrologers, chiromancers, clairvoyants and bioenergetics specialists can provide advice on the future, health, money, etc.

Article 23. Journalists and their Relations with Producers and Disseminators of Public Information

1. The producer of public information must have the rules of procedure and/or internal code of ethics. At least one of these documents approved by the producer of public information must establish the rights, duties and responsibility and official relations of journalists as well as the protection of journalists against the possible restrictions of his rights.

2. Regardless of whether a journalist is linked with a producer of public information by employment relations, the producer of public information must agree with the journalist in writing as to the use of the journalist's copyrighted work. Such an agreement shall also be considered a collective agreement drawn up between the producer of public information or an organisation representing him and journalists or an organisation representing them, laying down the conditions of use of the journalists' copyrighted works. If the producer of public information who uses a copyrighted work of the journalist has not agreed upon it with the journalist in writing and is not a party to the collective agreement, the producer of public information shall not be exempt from an obligation to remunerate fairly for the used copyrighted work of the journalist.

3. The professional and legal status of journalists and their social guarantees shall be laid down in this Law and other laws of the Republic of Lithuania.

Article 24. Data on Participants of Legal Persons who Are Publishers of Local, Regional and National Newspapers and Magazines or Managers of the Information Society Media

1. Legal persons who are publishers of local, regional and national newspapers and magazines or managers of the information society media, with the exception of those referred to in paragraph 6 of Article 22 of this Law, must submit to the institution authorised by the Government in the field of provision of information to the public (hereinafter referred to as the “institution authorised by the Government”) in accordance with the procedure and within the time limits established by the aforementioned institution the data on their participants who have the right of ownership to or control at least 10% of all the shares or assets (where the assets are not share-based) and inform of the revised data if they change. Notifications of the revised data must contain the names and surnames (names) of such participants, their personal numbers (registration numbers), the stake held in the assets or the number of shares as well as the percentage of votes, administrative bodies and members thereof as well as information about property relations and/or joint activity linking them with other producers and/or disseminators of public information and/or their participants. Where the participants of the legal persons are legal persons registered in the Republic of Lithuania or in a foreign state, the participants of such entities must also be indicated. The institution authorised by the Government shall publish the received data on its website not later than within 15 days from the date of receipt thereof.

2. The President of the Republic, members of the Seimas and the Government, members of municipal councils, civil servants of political (personal) confidence as well as heads of state and municipal institutions and agencies must submit to the institution authorised by the Government according to its established procedure the data about the legal persons who are publishers of local, regional and national newspapers and magazines or managers of the information society media of which they are participants. The institution authorised by the Government shall publish the received data on its website.

3. Producers and/or disseminators of public information and their participants must publish in their media information about any sponsorship received if it exceeds the amount of ten base social benefits, specifying the amount and provider of the sponsorship.

4. Failure to submit the data referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall incur liability in accordance with the procedure established by laws and other sanctions.

Article 25. Providers of Audiovisual Media Services under the Jurisdiction of the Republic of Lithuania

1. A provider of audiovisual media services shall be considered to fall under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Lithuania if he meets at least one of the following conditions:

1) the head office of the provider of audiovisual media services is in the Republic of Lithuania and the editorial decisions relating to the audiovisual media services are taken in the Republic of Lithuania;

2) the head office of the provider of audiovisual media services is in the Republic of Lithuania and the editorial decisions relating to the audiovisual media services are taken in another EU Member State or a state of the European Economic Area, he is considered to be established in that Member State in which the majority of his employees engaged in the audiovisual media service activities carry out the activities relating to the provision of such services. Where the majority of the employees engaged in the audiovisual media service activities carry out the activities in both Member States, the provider of the audiovisual media service shall be considered to be established in the Republic of Lithuania. Where the majority of the employees engaged in the audiovisual media service activities do not carry out the activities in any of the Member States, the provider of the audiovisual media service shall be considered to be established in that Member State in which he commenced his activities in compliance with the law of that Member State, provided that he maintains permanent and effective economic relations with that Member State;

3) the head office of the provider of audiovisual media services is in the Republic of Lithuania, but the editorial decisions relating to the audiovisual media services are taken in third countries (a country other than a Member State of the European Union or a state of the European Economic Area) or the head office of the provider of audiovisual media services is in a third country (a country other than a Member State of the European Union or a state of the European Economic Area), but the editorial decisions relating to the audiovisual media services are taken in the Republic of Lithuania, he is considered to be established in the Republic of Lithuania if the majority of the employees engaged in the audiovisual media service activities carry out the activities in the Republic of Lithuania.

2. A provider of audiovisual media services who does not meet any of the conditions specified in paragraph 1 of this Article and who does not fall under the jurisdiction of any EU Member State, state of the European Economic Area or any other state which is a party to the Council of Europe Convention on Transfrontier Television shall be considered to fall under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Lithuania, provided he meets the following conditions:

1) the provider of audiovisual media services uses a transmission station set up in Lithuania which transmits signals to the satellite;

2) the provider of audiovisual media services does not use a transmission station set up in Lithuania which transmits signals to the satellite; however, he uses the resources of a communications satellite belonging to the Republic of Lithuania.

3. Where under paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article it is impossible to establish which Member State has the jurisdiction over a provider of audiovisual media services, the Republic of Lithuania shall be considered a competent state if the provider of audiovisual media service is established therein under Articles 49-54 of the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union (OJ 2008 C 115, p. 47).

Article 26. Dissemination of Public Information

1. Information shall be disseminated to the public by the producer of public information himself or another person under a contract with the producer of public information or with his permission.

2. It shall be permitted to disseminate in the Republic of Lithuania the media produced abroad if the content thereof does not contradict the provisions of this Law and other laws and treaties of the Republic of Lithuania. It shall be permitted to broadcast and re-broadcast in the Republic of Lithuania radio and/or television programmes or parts of programmes produced abroad without prejudice to the provisions of this Law and other laws.

3. Repealed as of 18 October 2010.

4. Repealed as of 18 October 2010.

Article 27. State Support for Producers of Public Information

1. The State shall support cultural and educational projects of producers of public information which are legal persons. State financial support shall be provided to producers of public information by tender and, except for the support specified in paragraph 2 of this Article, through the public establishment Media Support Foundation (hereinafter referred to as the “Foundation”). Each year the Seimas shall allocate the funds from the state budget to the Foundation. State institutions and agencies may not provide financial support or in essence equivalent support to producers of public information.

2. Financial support from the State budget for the publishing of books as well as publishing of works distributed on audio and visual media, and for the production of cinematographic films shall be allocated through the Ministry of Culture and the Ministry of Education and Science on the recommendation of expert commissions operating under the aforementioned Ministries.

Article 27¹. State Support for Publishers whose Newspapers and Magazines Are Delivered to Subscribers in Rural Residential Areas

1. The State shall support publishers of newspapers and magazines whose newspapers and magazines are delivered to subscribers in rural residential areas (hereinafter referred to as “publishers”), except for publishers of newspapers and magazines assigned to publications of erotic and/or violent nature and of such publications in which advertising constitutes over 50% of the text. State financial support for publishers shall be ensured by allocating partial funding to them to reimburse up to 30% of expenses incurred by the publishers in the course of delivery of newspapers and magazines to subscribers in rural residential areas (hereinafter referred to as “delivery”). State partial financial support for publishers shall be provided in accordance with the procedure established by the Government or an institution authorised by it. The Government or the institution authorised by it shall also determine the maximum amount of state partial financial support allocated to a single publisher.

2. State partial financial support for publishers shall be allocated through the Foundation on the basis of applications for reimbursement of delivery expenses and documents proving the expenses of delivery to subscribers.

Article 28. Media Support Foundation

1. The Foundation shall operate in conformity with the Law on Public Institutions, this Law and other laws as well as its articles of association. The participants of the Foundation, in accordance with its articles of association, may be associations of artists, organisations of producers of public information as well as other organisations and institutions shaping cultural and educational policy and engaged in cultural and/or educational activities. The articles of association of the Foundation must provide for the procedure of admission of new participants.

2. The Council of the Foundation shall be in charge of its activities. The Council of the Foundation shall consist of 11 members. They shall be elected for each term of office by a general meeting of the participants of the Foundation. A term of office of a member of the Council of the Foundation shall last two years. The same person may not be a member of the Council of the Foundation for more than two consecutive terms of office. The Council of the Foundation shall be headed by the chairman of the Council. He shall be elected by the Council of the Foundation from its members for the term of office of the Council. Decisions of the Council of the Foundation shall be adopted by a simple majority vote of all members of the Council; in the event of a tie vote, the chairman of the Council of the Foundation shall have the casting vote. The Council of the Foundation shall operate in compliance with the rules of procedure approved by it. The Council of the Foundation shall take decisions regarding the results of tenders on the basis of the conclusions presented by expert groups. Expert groups shall be formed and operate in accordance with the regulations approved by the Council of the Foundation.

3. Sources of funding of the Foundation shall be:

- 1) state grants (subsidies);
- 2) funds contributed by legal or natural persons;
- 3) annual fees for the licences of broadcasters and re-broadcaster of radio and/or television programmes registered in the Republic of Lithuania;
- 4) interest on the funds of the Foundation kept in banks;
- 5) other lawfully acquired funds.

4. The Foundation shall, on the basis of a separate estimate, allocate funds to the Ethics Commission of Journalists and Publishers for the performance of functions established by laws.

5. The Foundation shall, by tender, select providers of newspaper delivery services and shall allocate the funds of the Foundation to partly reimburse the costs of newspaper delivery incurred by them.

6. The Foundation shall, by tender, support cultural and educational projects of producers of public information under the following six programmes:

- 1) cultural, art publications;
- 2) educational publications;
- 3) regional media (regional, local newspapers, magazines or other special publications, radio and television);
- 4) radio and television;
- 5) the Internet media (information society media);
- 6) cultural education of children and youth.

7. General provisions for tenders, drawn up by the Council of the Foundation, which represent the proportions of programmes and funding and which have been coordinated at a joint meeting of the Seimas Committee on Education, Science and Culture and the Seimas Committee on the Development of Information Society, shall be approved by the Government.

8. The Foundation shall each year publish in the press its annual activity report, while the chairman of the Council of the Foundation shall each year at a plenary meeting of the Seimas present the annual report on the allocation and use of the funds received from the budget.

Article 29. Fair Competition in the Field of Provision of Information to the Public

1. State and municipal agencies as well as all types of other enterprises, agencies and organisations or natural persons may not monopolise the media.

2. The State shall create equal legal and economic conditions for fair competition among producers and disseminators of public information, except for producers and/or disseminators of productions of violent and erotic nature. In accordance with the procedure established by this Law and other laws, state and municipal institutions shall exercise control with a view to upholding pluralism in the provision of information to the public and fair competition, avoiding the abuse of a dominant position by producers and/or disseminators of public information or in any separate segment of the media market. A dominant position in the field of provision of information to the public shall be determined in conformity with this Law and the Law of Competition.

3. Restrictions laid down by this Law and other laws or legal acts shall apply to producers and/or disseminators of public information of violent and erotic nature.

Article 30. Lithuanian National Radio and Television

The Lithuanian National Radio and Television (hereinafter referred to as the “LRT”) shall be a non-profit public establishment belonging to the State by the right of ownership and operating in accordance with this Law and the Law on the Lithuanian National Radio and Television.

Article 31. Licensing of Radio and/or Television Programme Broadcasting and Re-broadcasting Activities

1. Radio and/or television programme broadcasting and re-broadcasting activities in the Republic of Lithuania shall be licensed, except for broadcasting of radio programmes by electronic communications networks the main purpose of which is not broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting of radio and/or television programmes as well as broadcasting carried out by natural persons for non-commercial purposes by such networks. Persons who wish to engage in radio and/or television programme broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting activities must obtain broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licences. Broadcasting and re-broadcasting licences granting the right to set up and operate own electronic communications networks, the right to use own electronic communications networks for broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting of radio and/or television programmes or the right to use the transmission service provided by a third party shall be issued by the Commission. The Rules for Licensing of Broadcasting and Re-broadcasting Activities shall be approved by the institution authorised by the Government in the field of provision of information to the public on the recommendation of the Commission.

2. The Communications Regulatory Authority shall submit to the Commission information about the coordinated radio frequencies (channels) which, in accordance with the plan for the assignment of radio frequencies for broadcasting and transmission of radio and television programmes, are assigned to broadcasters and/or re-broadcasters of radio and/or television programmes in possession of licences issued by the Commission granting them the right to set up and operate own electronic communications networks together with information about the basic conditions of operating electronic communications networks required to issue broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licences. Upon receiving the aforementioned information, the Commission shall issue broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licences in accordance with the procedure and terms established by this Law and the Rules for Licensing of Broadcasting and Re-broadcasting Activities.

3. The basic conditions of operating electronic communications networks specified in the broadcasting or re-broadcasting licence together with radio frequencies (channels), except for the cases where radio frequencies (channels) provided for in the plan for the assignment of radio frequencies for broadcasting and transmission of radio and television programmes are not used for the broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting of radio and/or television programmes, must comply with the basic operating conditions of radio frequencies (channels) and electronic communications networks intended for the broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting of radio and/or television programmes presented by the Communications Regulatory Authority to the Commission. A specific transmission provider shall be additionally entered in the broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licence issued by the Commission granting the right to use the transmission service provided by a third party.

4. The Communications Regulatory Authority shall have the right to replace the radio frequency (channel) with another radio frequency (channel) used for the same purpose after giving a six-month advance notice to the user of the radio frequency (channel) or to cancel the assignment of the radio frequency (channel) after giving a twelve-month advance notice to the user of the radio frequency (channel) if:

- 1) this is required under international obligations or the EU legal acts;
- 2) in accordance with the procedure laid down by the Law on Electronic Communications, the radio frequency band designation is modified due to international obligations or the EU legal acts, including recommendations – in coordination with the Commission if the assignment of the radio frequency (channel) is changed or cancelled before the expiry of the term of use of the radio frequency (channel) established by the Communications Regulatory Authority;
- 3) the radio frequency (channel) is used inefficiently based on the criteria specified in the plan for the assignment of radio frequencies for broadcasting and transmission of radio and television programmes;
- 4) the plan for the assignment of radio frequencies for broadcasting and transmission of radio and television programmes is amended.

5. Radio frequencies (channels) shall be the property of the Republic of Lithuania and may not be privatised.

6. Radio and/or television programme broadcasting activities pursued by the LRT shall not be licensed. In order to ensure the broadcasting of the LRT radio and/or television programmes, the Commission shall, without tender in order of priority and in accordance with the provisions and conditions set out in this Law, issue authorisations granting the rights equivalent to those granted by the licences referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article.

7. When issuing broadcasting and re-broadcasting licences, priority shall be given to persons who undertake to produce original cultural, informational and educational programmes, ensure accurate and impartial presentation of information, respect a person's dignity and right to privacy, protect minors from public information which might have a detrimental effect on their physical, mental and moral development as well as to persons who have undertaken to broadcast radio and/or television programmes that are not yet broadcast by other broadcasters of radio and/or television programmes within the designated reception zone.

8. Broadcasting and re-broadcasting licences shall be issued by tender, except for the cases specified in paragraph 9 of this Article. The Commission shall publish invitations to tender for obtaining broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licences not later than within 15 days of the receipt of the information specified in paragraph 2 of this Article from the Communications Regulatory Authority. The decisions of the Commission relating to the publication of invitations to tender shall be published in the supplement Informaciniai pranešimai to the official gazette Valstybės žinios. Refusal of the Commission to issue the broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licence must be substantiated and communicated to the tenderer in writing.

9. The Commission shall issue broadcasting and re-broadcasting licences without tender in the following cases:

1) to research and higher education institutions or educational establishments – for broadcasting educational and cultural radio and/or television programmes by terrestrial radio and/or television stations with a power level ranging up to 20 W;

2) for broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting television programmes by cable television and radio networks;

3) for broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting television programmes by electronic communications networks the main purpose of which is not the broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting of radio and/or television programmes;

4) for broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting programmes by an artificial Earth satellite (satellites);

5) in other cases provided for in the plan for the assignment of radio frequencies for broadcasting and transmission of radio and television programmes.

10. On the recommendation of the Commission, the institution authorised by the Government in the field of provision of information to the public shall approve a description of the procedure for fixing the amount of the annual fee for broadcasting and re-broadcasting licences (hereinafter referred to as the “annual licence fee”) and shall fix the amount of the annual licence fee in compliance with the aforementioned description. The annual licence fees shall be transferred to the Foundation to support audio and visual projects.

11. The institution authorised by the Government in the field of provision of information to the public shall fix the annual licence fee having regard to:

1) the nature and content of radio and/or television programmes broadcast and/or re-broadcast by the licence holder;

2) the territory in which programmes will be broadcast and/or re-broadcast and decoders and other equipment distributed to enable access to the programmes (where the programmes are broadcast and/or re-broadcast using conditional access systems) and the number of residents in that territory;

3) the competitive environment;

4) the importance of the radio and/or television programme for the development of programme broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting services.

12. A broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licence issued by the Commission to a broadcaster and/or re-broadcaster of radio and/or television programmes shall not restrict the possibility to provide other unlicensed services by the same electronic communications network or separate equipment if the provision thereof does not interfere with the broadcasting or re-broadcasting of radio and/or television programmes in accordance with the terms and conditions set out in the broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licence. Only the holders of broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licences may conclude agreements with providers of electronic communications services to transmit and/or re-broadcast radio and/or television programmes.

13. The Commission may suspend a licence by its decision for no longer than three months if the Communications Regulatory Authority revokes the right to use a radio frequency (channel) and appeals to the Commission to suspend the licence or a licence holder seriously breaches the requirements of this Law or the terms and conditions of the licence:

1) disseminates information that is not to be published and prohibited under paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 19 of this Law;

2) infringes the basic terms and conditions of the broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licence and/or obligations concerning the broadcast and/or re-broadcast radio and/or television programme and an administrative penalty has been imposed on him repeatedly for the same infringement within the last 12 months;

3) infringes the legal requirements regarding the protection of minors against the detrimental effect of public information on their physical, mental or moral development and an administrative penalty has been imposed on him repeatedly for the same infringement within the last 12 months;

4) fails to pay the annual licence fee in due time;

5) does not pay the contributions specified in this Law to finance the activities of the Commission and has been issued a warning for the same infringement twice within the last 24 months.

14. The Commission may adopt a decision to revoke a broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licence if:

1) the licence holder renounces the licence;

2) the licence holder is liquidated or reorganised;

3) the licence holder does not pursue the licensed activity for a period of more than two consecutive months or more than three months within a calendar year without the Commission's consent;

4) the licence holder has not commenced the pursuit of the licensed activity within the period specified in the licence;

5) the licence holder submitted incorrect data when applying for the broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting licence;

6) the licence holder fails to eliminate the infringement for which the licence has been temporarily suspended or commits the same infringement within 12 months after the expiration of the temporary suspension term;

7) the licence holder broadcasts and/or re-broadcasts a radio and/or television programme (programmes) during the term of temporary suspension of the licence;

8) there is a change of the owner of the majority share holding of the licence holder or the control (management) of the licence holder is transferred to another person (persons) without receiving the Commission's consent or incorrect data have been provided in the application submitted to receive the Commission's consent;

9) the Communications Regulatory Authority revokes the right to use a radio frequency (channel) and appeals to the Commission to revoke the licence;

10) the period of validity of a permit to use a radio frequency (channel) expires and the Communications Regulatory Authority does not extend it in the manner prescribed by laws.

15. When adopting a decision on the temporary suspension or revocation of a licence, the Commission shall set a specific term as of which the suspension or revocation of the licence becomes effective. This term may not be shorter than the term established by this Law for appealing against the Commission's decisions in court. The licence holder must suspend (discontinue) the licensed activity as of the date specified in the decision, except for cases where the court temporarily suspends the validity of the Commission's decision upon appealing against in court. If the court does not revoke the Commission's decision on the temporary suspension or revocation of the broadcasting or re-broadcasting licence, the licence holder must suspend (discontinue) the licensed activity as of the date when the court decision enters into force. The Commission's decision on the temporary suspension or revocation of the broadcasting or re-broadcasting licence must be sanctioned by Vilnius Regional Administrative Court. The application to sanction the Commission's decision must specify the factual and legal grounds for the adoption of the decision by the Commission as well as the supporting evidence. The application must be submitted together with the Commission's decision, the copies of documents supporting its factual and legal grounds as well as other required materials. A judge of Vilnius Regional Administrative Court must examine the Commission's application and adopt a reasoned ruling to satisfy or reject the application within 72 hours from submission thereof. If the Commission does not agree with the ruling of the judge of Vilnius Regional Administrative Court to reject the application, its authorised representative shall have the right within seven days to appeal against the court ruling at the Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania. The Supreme Administrative Court of Lithuania must examine the appeal against the ruling of Vilnius Regional Administrative Court within seven days from the date of acceptance of the appeal.

16. A licence holder may not transfer the licence or the rights granted thereby to other persons. In the event that a licence holder is reorganised, the successor (successors) to its rights and obligations may, by a decision of the Commission, be issued a new licence (licences) without tender to pursue the licensed activity of broadcasting of radio and/or television programmes under the same conditions if that person prior to reorganisation submits to the Commission an appropriate application and specifies reorganisation conditions and if, both prior to and during the reorganisation, there have been no violations of the laws of the Republic of Lithuania regulating radio and/or television programme broadcasting or re-broadcasting activities, terms and conditions of the licence and decisions of the Commission.

17. In the event of change of the licence holder's founding documents or members of the management bodies, the licence holder must inform the Commission thereof not later than within 30 days.

18. A licence holder must inform the Commission about the intended discontinuation of the licensed activity of broadcasting of radio and/or television programmes not later than 30 days prior to discontinuation. Upon receiving the Commission's consent, the licence holder may temporarily suspend the licensed activity of broadcasting of radio and/or television programmes, but for a period not longer than three months.

Article 32. Protection from Unlawful Broadcasting and/or Re-broadcasting

1. Broadcasters and/or re-broadcasters of radio and/or television programmes may not extend or otherwise change the territorial area of the licensed activity specified in the licence (coverage zone of broadcast and/or re-broadcast radio and/or television programmes) without the Commission's permission. In cases where the assignment and use of radio frequencies (channels) intended for such broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting is regulated by the plan for the assignment of radio frequencies for broadcasting and transmission of radio and television programmes, the permission of the Commission must be obtained only where the territorial area of the licensed activity is changed subject to the criteria set out in this plan.

2. It shall be prohibited to unlawfully interfere with radio and/or television programmes broadcast by other broadcasters of radio and/or television programmes, use for broadcasting and/or re-broadcasting of radio and/or television programmes radio frequencies (channels) not specified in the licence or cause broadcasting interference.

Article 33. Re-broadcasting of Radio and Television Programmes

1. Re-broadcasters of television programmes under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Lithuania must re-broadcast all the uncoded national television programmes of the LRT.

2. The Commission may take a decision to exempt from the obligation to re-broadcast the uncoded national television programmes of the LRT specified in paragraph 1 of this Article where such a decision does not limit the possibilities of the user to view these programmes by the available technical means.

3. Re-broadcasters and the LRT shall not pay each other for must-carry television programmes.

4. It shall be prohibited to alter the re-broadcast radio and/or television programmes or parts of the programmes or insert therein any other information. The use of special technical measures with a view to ensuring the protection of minors against the detrimental effect of public information on their physical, mental or moral development, adapting for the disabled or ensuring the exclusive rights of other broadcasters of radio and/or television programmes to television programmes or parts thereof shall not be considered an alteration of the re-broadcast television programme.

5. In re-broadcasting licences, the Commission shall determine the specific re-broadcast television programmes, languages in which television programmes are re-broadcast and/or shown with subtitles and other re-broadcasting conditions.

6. Upon establishing the cultural or public value of a special television programme broadcast, the Commission may, at the request of the broadcaster, grant it the must-carry programme status and provide that re-broadcasters of programmes must re-broadcast it free of charge. Only special cultural, educational, scientific, news, sports or regional television programmes shall be recognised as must-carry television programmes. When taking such a decision, the Commission shall define the scope of re-broadcasting.

SECTION TWO

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE PRODUCTION AND DISSEMINATION OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

Article 34. Language in which Public Information is Produced and Disseminated

1. Public information shall be produced and disseminated in the state language or any other language pursuant to this Law and the Law on the State Language as well as the resolutions of the State Commission on the Lithuanian Language, except for the cases specified in this Law. Producers and disseminators of public information, in cooperation with the competent state and municipal institutions and agencies, shall, where possible, ensure that the disseminated public information is accessible to the disabled.

2. Radio and/or television programmes broadcast in a language other than Lithuanian must be translated into Lithuanian or shown with Lithuanian subtitles, except for educational, occasional, special, music and re-broadcast foreign radio and/or television programmes or parts of programmes as well as programmes produced by broadcasters of radio and/or television programmes intended for the ethnic minorities of Lithuania. The Commission, taking into account the needs of ethnic minorities residing in the coverage zone of broadcast radio and/or television programmes, where necessary, when specifying the terms and conditions of the licence may determine the share of broadcast and/or re-broadcast radio and/or television programmes or parts thereof which must be comprised of radio and/or television programmes or parts of programmes in the languages of the ethnic minorities.

3. Broadcasters of television programmes shall be prohibited from showing audiovisual works which have been translated from an official EU language into a non EU language.

4. When re-broadcasting television programmes, re-broadcasters must give priority to the official EU languages, therefore, where it is possible to choose between the official EU language or any other language to re-broadcast the same television programme, they must provide all the conditions for the television programme or a part of the programme to be re-broadcast in the official EU language.

Article 34¹. Freedom to Provide Audiovisual Media Services and Restrictions Thereon

1. Free reception of audiovisual media services from the EU Member States, states of the European Economic Area and other European states which have ratified the Council of Europe Convention on Transfrontier Television shall be guaranteed in the Republic of Lithuania.

2. It shall be permitted to broadcast and re-broadcast in the Republic of Lithuania radio and/or television programmes or parts of programmes produced abroad without prejudice to the provisions of this Law and other laws.

3. Free reception in the Republic of Lithuania of television programmes broadcast or re-broadcast from the EU Member States, states of the European Economic Area and other European states which have ratified the Council of Europe Convention on Transfrontier Television shall be temporarily suspended when all the following conditions are present:

1) such television programmes violate the requirements of Article 17, subparagraph 3 of paragraph 1 of Article 19 or subparagraph 4 of paragraph 1 of Article 19 of this Law;

2) the violation specified in subparagraph 1 of this paragraph is repeated within 12 months of the first violation;

3) upon receiving a written conclusion of the competent institution regarding a suspected violation, the Commission has informed the broadcaster of television programmes and the European Commission about the suspected violations and about the measures the Commission intends to take in the event of repeated violations;

4) no agreement is reached by mutual consent through consultations with the state which broadcasts the television programmes and the European Commission within 15 days of the warning specified in subparagraph 3 of this paragraph and the alleged violations continue.

4. In cases where stricter or more detailed requirements for broadcasting of television programmes are established in the legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania than those laid down in the Audiovisual Media Services Directive and a broadcaster of television programmes under the jurisdiction of another EU Member State or a state of the European Economic Area broadcasts a television programme which is wholly or mostly directed towards the territory of the Republic of Lithuania, the Commission shall apply to the responsible institution of the EU Member State or the state of the European Economic Area having jurisdiction with a view to achieving a mutually satisfactory solution to any problems posed.

5. Where the Commission determines that in the case specified in paragraph 4 of this Article the achieved results are insufficient to solve the problem posed and the broadcaster of television programmes whose programmes violate the requirements of the legal acts of the Republic of Lithuania has established itself in a state under the jurisdiction of another EU Member State or a state of the European Economic Area in order to circumvent stricter requirements set for the specified fields than those set in the Audiovisual Media Services Directive which are applicable to broadcasters of television programmes established in the Republic of Lithuania, the Commission shall have the right to adopt against that broadcaster of television programmes such appropriate measures likely to be applied as are objectively necessary, applied in a non-discriminatory manner and proportionate to the objectives which they pursue and impose such measures.

6. The Commission shall take the measures specified in paragraph 5 of this Article only in the presence of all the following circumstances:

1) the Commission has notified the European Commission and the Member State in which the broadcaster of television programmes is established of its intention to take the measures specified in paragraph 5 of this Article substantiating the grounds on which it bases its assessment;

2) the European Commission has decided that the measures to be applied have been harmonised with the EU legislation and that assessments made by the Commission taking these measures under paragraphs 4 and 5 of this Article are appropriately founded.

7. If the European Commission decides that the measures are incompatible with the EU legislation, the Commission shall not have the right to take the proposed measures.

8. In the case of provision of on-demand audiovisual media services, the Commission may take measures restricting the free use of audiovisual media services only in the presence of all the following circumstances:

1) the measures are necessary with a view to ensuring public order, in particular the prevention, investigation, detection and prosecution of criminal offences, including the protection of minors and the fight against any incitement to hatred on grounds of race, sex, religious convictions or nationality, and violations of human dignity concerning individual persons; also with a view to ensuring the protection of public health, public security, including the safeguarding of national security and defence, the protection of consumers, including investors;

2) the measures are taken against an on-demand audiovisual media service which prejudices the objectives referred to in subparagraph 1 of this paragraph or which presents a serious and grave risk of prejudice to those objectives;

3) the measures taken are proportionate to the objectives specified in subparagraph 1 of this paragraph;

4) without prejudice to court proceedings, including pre-trial investigation and acts carried out as part of a criminal investigation, the Commission has applied to the responsible institutions of the EU Member State, the state of the European Economic Area or another state requesting to take measures and the latter did not take such measures or the measures were inadequate.

9. Before taking the measures specified in paragraph 8 of this Article and without prejudice to court proceedings, including pre-trial investigation and acts carried out as part of a criminal investigation, the Commission must notify the European Commission, the EU Member State and the state of the European Economic Area under whose jurisdiction the audiovisual media service provider falls of its intention to take such measures. The requirements of this paragraph shall apply only when taking the measures referred to in paragraph 8 of this Article against the audiovisual media service provider falling under the jurisdiction of the EU Member State or the state of the European Economic Area.

10. In case of urgency, the Commission may derogate from the provisions of paragraph 9 of this Article. In that case, the Commission must, within the shortest possible time, notify of the measures taken the European Commission and the responsible institution of the EU Member State or the state of the European Economic Area under whose jurisdiction the audiovisual media service provider falls and indicate the reasons for which the Commission considers that there is urgency. The requirements of this paragraph shall apply only when taking measures against the audiovisual media service provider falling under the jurisdiction of the EU Member State or the state of the European Economic Area.

11. Free reception in the Republic of Lithuania of television programmes and/or parts of programmes and/or catalogues from countries other than the EU Member States, states of the European Economic Area and other European states which have ratified the Council of Europe Convention on Transfrontier Television may be suspended upon a decision of the Commission if such television programmes and/or parts of the programmes and/or the catalogues of those countries violate the requirements of Articles 17 or 19 of this Law. In its decision, the Commission shall indicate the specific measures and the date of their application with a view to suspending the reception of the aforementioned television programmes and/or parts of the programmes and/or the catalogues in the territory of the Republic of Lithuania. The measures to be applied must be proportionate to the violations committed.

12. The decision of the Commission taken pursuant to paragraph 11 of this Article regarding the suspension of reception of television programmes and/or parts of programmes and/or catalogues in the territory of the Republic of Lithuania may be adopted only upon receiving a sanction of Vilnius Regional Administrative Court.

Article 34². Information about Audiovisual Media Service Providers

Audiovisual media service providers must make the following information easily, directly and permanently accessible to service recipients in accordance with the procedure established by the Commission:

- 1) the name of the audiovisual media service provider;
- 2) the address of the registered office at which the audiovisual media service provider is established;
- 3) the details of the audiovisual media service provider, including his electronic mail address or website, which allow him to be contacted rapidly, in a direct and effective manner;
- 4) the name, address and telephone number of regulatory and self-regulatory bodies;

Article 35. Storing of Published Information

1. A producer and disseminator of public information must keep a copy of the printed publication, audiovisual works and recordings of the radio and/or television programmes broadcast for at least one year from the date of dissemination of the information.

2. The requirements laid down in paragraph 1 of this Article shall not apply to the information society media, however, their managers must, in the manner, within the time limits and the scope prescribed by the institution authorised by the Government, ensure that information about the content management is stored for up to one year.

Article 36. Requirements Set for Publications and Dissemination Thereof

1. Each publication must specify its circulation, other publishing details set by the Lithuanian standards and the international standard number (ISBN, ISSN, ISMN, etc.). These requirements shall not apply to publications intended for advertising or entertainment purposes (booklets, postcards, calendars, etc.).

2. The circulation of local, regional and national newspapers and magazines, except for those whose circulation does not exceed 500 copies or which contain no advertising, must be verified in accordance with the procedure established by the Government or an institution authorised by it.

3. The Government shall determine the number of mandatory copies of documents which shall be handed over to libraries free of charge.

Article 37. European Audiovisual Works

1. The following shall be considered European audiovisual works (hereinafter referred to as “European works”):

1) works produced in the Republic of Lithuania or in other EU Member States and states of the European Economic Area and other states which have ratified the Council of Europe Convention on Transfrontier Television, if the producers of such works are established in these states or the production of such works is controlled by one or more producers established in these states, or the contribution of the producers established in the aforementioned states to the costs of the co-production (production) is larger than the contribution of the producers established in other (third) countries and the total co-production (production) is not controlled by one or more producers established outside the Republic of Lithuania, the EU Member States, the states of the European Economic Area or the other states which have ratified the Council of Europe Convention on Transfrontier Television;

2) works produced in third countries, i.e. outside the EU Member States, states of the European Economic Area or other states which have ratified the Council of Europe Convention on Transfrontier Television, if they are produced by producers established in one or several third countries or by such producers in co-operation with producers established in one or several EU Member States and in the Republic of Lithuania provided that the European Union and the Republic of Lithuania have concluded agreements with these third countries on cooperation in the audiovisual field and provided that such works are largely produced by authors and producers residing in one or several European states.

2. Subparagraphs 1 and 2 of paragraph 1 of this Article shall apply in the event that works produced in the Republic of Lithuania or the EU Member States are not subject to discriminatory measures in the countries referred to in subparagraphs 1 and 2 of paragraph 1 of this Article.

3. Works which within the meaning of paragraph 1 of this Article should not be considered as European works, but which have been produced within the framework of bilateral co-production (production) contracts between the EU Member States or the Republic of Lithuania and third countries, shall be treated as European works if the contribution of the producers from the EU or the Republic of Lithuania comprises the major part of the costs of co-production (production) and if the creation (production) thereof is not controlled by producers established in a state other than the EU Member State.

4. Works which within the meaning of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article should not be considered as European works, but which have been largely produced in co-operation with authors and producers residing in one or several EU Member States shall be treated as European works to the extent proportionate to the contribution of producers established in the EU Member States to the costs of the total co-production (production).

Article 38. Requirements Set for Radio and Television Programmes

1. Broadcasters of television programmes in their regularly broadcast programmes shall have the right to freely produce and show short news reports (with a duration of up to 90 seconds) covering events of major importance for society in Lithuania and abroad for the provision of information whereon to the public other broadcasters of television programmes have acquired exclusive rights. Short news reports must be broadcast not earlier than after the end of the live broadcast of the event of public importance. Broadcasters of television programmes shall not pay for the broadcasting of short news reports to the broadcasters of television programmes who have acquired exclusive rights for the provision of information covering the event of major importance for society, except for the cases where the provision of access to events of major importance for society entails additional costs on the part of the broadcaster of television programmes who provides such access. The payment for the provision of access to events of major importance for society may not exceed the additional costs directly incurred in providing access.

2. All broadcasters of television programmes established in any EU Member State or a state of the European Economic Area wishing to produce short news reports shall have the right to access on a fair, reasonable and non-discriminatory basis to events of major importance for society which are transmitted on an exclusive basis by the audiovisual media service provider under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Lithuania.

3. If another broadcaster of television programmes established in the same Member State as the broadcaster of television programmes seeking access to events of major importance for society has acquired exclusive rights to the particular event of major importance for society, access must be sought from that broadcaster of television programmes.

4. Access to events of major importance for society must be guaranteed by allowing broadcasters of television programmes to freely choose short news reports from the signal of the transmitting broadcaster of television programmes and, unless impossible for reasons of practicality, at least identifying their source.

5. Short news reports may be used solely for general news programmes and may be used in on-demand audiovisual media services only if the same programme is offered on a deferred basis by the same audiovisual media service provider.

6. The following requirements shall be complied with when broadcasting television programmes covering events of major importance for society:

1) broadcasters of television programmes under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Lithuania having acquired exclusive rights to broadcast programmes covering the events of major importance for society taking place in Lithuania or outside its territory may not broadcast these programmes on an exclusive basis in such a way as to deprive a substantial proportion of Lithuania's population of the possibility of following such events by live coverage in free television programmes;

2) broadcasters of television programmes under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Lithuania may not exercise the exclusive rights referred to in subparagraph 1 of this paragraph in such a way as to deprive a substantial proportion of people residing in another EU Member State, a state of the European Economic Area or a state which has ratified the Council of Europe Convention on Transfrontier Television of the possibility of following the events taking place in Lithuania or outside its territory which, under the legal acts of that state, are designated as events of major importance for society. Programmes covering such events shall be broadcast in accordance with the broadcasting procedure established in the respective state.

3) broadcasters of television programmes under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Lithuania may not exercise the exclusive rights purchased after 30 July 1997 in such a way that a substantial proportion of residents in another EU Member State or a state of the European Economic Area is deprived of the possibility of following events of major importance for society in that EU Member State or the state of the European Economic Area by whole or partial live coverage or, where necessary or appropriate for objective reasons in the public interest, whole or partial deferred coverage in free television recordings which are considered by the other EU Member States or states of the European Economic Area to be of major importance for society.

7. A list of events considered to be of major importance for society in the Republic of Lithuania drawn up by the Commission shall be approved by the Government on the recommendation of the institution authorised by it in the field of provision of information to the public.

8. Broadcasters of television programmes must, where possible, reserve more than half of the television programme time remaining after deducting the time allocated for news, sports events, games and advertising programmes, teletext services and teleshopping for European works.

9. Broadcasters of television programmes must, where possible, reserve at least 10% of the television programme time remaining after deducting the time allocated for news, sports events, games, advertising programmes, teletext services and teleshopping for European works created by independent producers not earlier than within the last five years.

10. Other requirements for radio and/or television programmes shall be laid down in this Law, the Law on the Lithuanian National Radio and Television, other laws as well as licences issued to broadcasters of radio and/or television programmes.

11. Providers of audiovisual media services falling under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Lithuania must transmit cinematographic works within periods agreed upon with the right holders.

12. The name of a broadcast or re-broadcast radio and/or television programme must be announced during the radio and/or television programme at least once per clock hour. Where the duration of the radio and/or television programme is shorter than one hour, the name of such a radio and/or television programme must be announced at the end of it.

13. The requirements specified in paragraphs 8 and 9 of this Article shall not apply to local television programmes.

Article 39. Requirements Set for Advertising and Audiovisual Commercial Communications

1. Advertising and audiovisual commercial communications must be decent, correct and readily recognisable. It shall be prohibited to publish in advertising and audiovisual commercial communications information which degrades human dignity, promotes any discrimination based on race, sex or ethnic origin, nationality, citizenship, religion or belief, disability or age also contains manifestations or promotion of sexual orientation, is offensive to religious or political convictions or promotes behaviour prejudicial to health or safety or behaviour grossly prejudicial to the protection of the environment.

2. Advertising and audiovisual commercial communications may not mislead and prejudice consumers.

3. Advertising and audiovisual commercial communications may not have a detrimental effect on the mental health of minors, their physical, mental or moral development and must comply with the following requirements:

1) they may not directly exhort minors to buy or hire or select a product or service by exploiting their inexperience and credulity;

2) they may not directly encourage minors to persuade their parents or others to purchase the goods or services being advertised;

3) they may not form the opinion of minors that the use of certain services or goods will make them physically, psychologically or socially superior to their peers;

4) they may not exploit the trust minors place in parents, teachers or other persons;

5) they may not show minors in dangerous situations in the absence of the public interest.

4. Advertisers and clients of audiovisual commercial communications shall not have the right to influence the content of public information, except for the content of advertising and audiovisual commercial communications ordered by them.

5. Surreptitious advertising and surreptitious audiovisual commercial communications shall be prohibited.

6. The use of subliminal techniques shall be prohibited in advertising and audiovisual commercial communications.

7. Advertising of tobacco products and audiovisual commercial communications intended for advertising of tobacco products shall be prohibited.

8. Restrictions on advertising of alcoholic beverages and audiovisual commercial communications intended for advertising of alcoholic beverages shall be established by the Law on Alcohol Control.

9. Advertising of medical treatment and medicinal products available only on prescription shall be prohibited in the media, except for special publications, in the information society media or programmes.

Advertising of other medicinal products or treatment with medicinal products must be readily recognisable and must warn about the possible harmful effect if misused.

10. Persons regularly hosting news programmes may neither take part in advertising or audiovisual commercial communications nor voice them over.

11. The requirements for teleshopping and television advertising shall be as follows:

1) teleshopping and television advertising must be decent, non-misleading, readily recognisable and distinguishable from the content of the programme by acoustic and/or optical and/or spatial means. Television advertising and teleshopping may be inserted during programmes without prejudice to the integrity of the part of the programme, taking into account natural breaks in the programme, the duration and nature of the programme and without violating the rights of the holders of property rights;

2) television advertising, announcement or teleshopping may not be inserted during religious services and religious programmes;

3) the total time of television advertising spots and teleshopping spots within a given clock hour must not exceed 20%. This subparagraph shall not apply to the programmes broadcast by the broadcaster of television programmes itself and announcements of the ancillary products directly related to those programmes, sponsorship announcements and product placements;

4) teleshopping windows must be of a minimum uninterrupted duration of 15 minutes. The number of teleshopping windows broadcast per day may not exceed eight with their total duration not exceeding three hours per day. Teleshopping windows must be clearly distinguished from other programmes by optical and spatial means;

5) television advertising spots and/or teleshopping spots during sports or other events containing natural breaks must be inserted only during the natural breaks of such events;

6) the broadcasting of films made for television (excluding series, serials and documentaries), cinematographic works and news programmes may be interrupted by television advertising and/or teleshopping once for each scheduled period of at least 30 minutes;

7) the broadcasting of children's programmes may be interrupted by television advertising and/or teleshopping once for each scheduled period of at least 30 minutes, provided that the scheduled duration of the programme is greater than 30 minutes;

8) it shall be prohibited to insert advertising and/or teleshopping in re-broadcast television programmes or parts thereof.

12. Requirements for advertising and dissemination thereof established in other legal acts shall also apply.

13. Control over compliance with advertising requirements specified in this Law and other laws shall be exercised by the National Consumer Rights Protection Board under the Ministry of Justice, the Competition Council of the Republic of Lithuania and the Commission, in cooperation with other regulatory bodies regulating the activities of producers and/or disseminators of public information and advertising self-regulatory bodies.

14. The provisions of this Article, except for the cases referred to in paragraphs 8 and 9 of Article 38 and subparagraphs 1 and 3 of paragraph 11 of this Article, shall apply mutatis mutandis to television programmes exclusively devoted to television advertising and teleshopping as well as to television programmes exclusively devoted to self-promotion.

15. Audiovisual media service providers or associations thereof must develop codes of conduct regarding inappropriate audiovisual commercial communications, inserted or included in children's programmes, of foods and beverages containing nutrients and substances with a nutritional or physiological effect, in particular those such as fat, trans-fatty acids, salt/sodium and sugars, which are recommended to be used in moderation.

16. Requirements for political advertising, the procedure for publishing and marking it in the media shall be laid down by the Law on Funding of Political Parties and Political Campaigns and Its Control as well as other legal acts.

17. Liability for the peculiarities of use of misleading and non-permitted comparative advertising and the procedure for applying it shall be established by the Law on Advertising.

Article 40. Sponsorship of Audiovisual Media Services, Radio Programmes and/or Parts of Programmes

1. Audiovisual media services radio programmes and/or parts of programmes that are sponsored must meet the following requirements:

1) their content and, in the case of broadcasting of television and/or radio programmes, their scheduling may in no circumstances be influenced in such a way as to affect the editorial responsibility and independence of the audiovisual media service provider and the broadcaster of radio programmes;

2) they may not directly encourage the purchase or rental of goods or services, in particular by making special promotional references to those goods or services;

3) viewers must be clearly informed of the existence of a sponsorship agreement. Sponsored programmes must be clearly identified as such by the surname (name), logo and/or any other symbol of the sponsor such as a reference to his product(s) or service(s) or a distinctive sign thereof in an appropriate way at the beginning, during and/or at the end of the programmes.

2. Audiovisual media services, radio programmes and/or parts thereof may not be sponsored by persons whose principal activity is the manufacture or sale of cigarettes and other tobacco products.

3. Where audiovisual media services and radio programmes or parts thereof are sponsored by persons whose activities include the manufacture or sale of medicinal products and medical treatment, they may promote the name (logo) or any other image of the sponsor but must not promote specific medicinal products or medical treatments available only on prescription.

4. News programmes may not be sponsored.

Article 40¹. Requirements for Product Placement in Programmes

1. Product placement shall be admissible in cinematographic works, films and series made for audiovisual media services, sports programmes and entertainment programmes. Product placement shall also be admissible where, without payment agreed upon between persons, certain goods or services, such as prizes or other goods or services necessary for the production of a programme, are included in the programme.

2. Programmes that include product placement must meet all of the following requirements:

1) the content and scheduling of programmes and the editorial responsibility and independence of the media service provider may in no circumstances be influenced;

2) they may not directly encourage the purchase or rental of goods or services, in particular by making special promotional references to those goods or services;

3) they may not give undue prominence to the product in question;

4) viewers must be clearly informed of the existence of product placement. Programmes containing product placement must be appropriately identified at the start and the end of the programme and when a programme resumes after an advertising break in order to avoid any confusion on the part of the viewer.

3. The following product placement shall be prohibited in programmes:

1) tobacco products or product placement from persons whose principal activity is the manufacture or sale of tobacco products;

2) specific medical treatments or medicinal products available only on prescription in the EU Member State within whose jurisdiction the audiovisual media service provider falls.

4. Product placement in children's programmes and news programmes shall be prohibited.

Note. Subparagraph 4 of paragraph 2 of Article 40¹ shall apply to programmes produced or commissioned by non-audiovisual media service providers or companies related thereto as of 31 December 2012.

CHAPTER THREE

REGULATION OF ON-DEMAND AUDIOVISUAL MEDIA SERVICES

Article 40². Registration of Providers of On-demand Audiovisual Media Services

Prior to commencing the provision of on-demand audiovisual media services, providers of on-demand audiovisual media services falling under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Lithuania must register with the Commission in accordance with the procedure established by it.

Article 40³. Protection of Minors in the Course of Provision of On-demand Audiovisual Media Services Providers of on-demand audiovisual media services must ensure in accordance with the procedure established by legal acts that on-demand audiovisual media services which might have a detrimental effect on the mental health of minors and their physical, mental or moral development are only made available in such a way that ensures that minors will not normally hear or see such on-demand audiovisual media services without control of persons responsible for the supervision or education of minors.

Article 40⁴. Promotion of European Works in the Course of Provision of On-demand Audiovisual Media Services

1. Providers of on-demand audiovisual media services falling under the jurisdiction of the Republic of Lithuania shall promote, where practicable and by appropriate means, the production of and access to European works.

2. In pursuing the activities specified in paragraph 1 of this Article, providers of on-demand audiovisual media services shall ensure that at least half of the programmes in the catalogue of on-demand audiovisual media services are European works.

SECTION FOUR
DUTIES AND LIABILITY OF JOURNALISTS, PRODUCERS AND DISSEMINATORS OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

Article 41. Duties of Journalists

1. The duties of journalists shall be set out in this Law and other laws as well as treaties of the Republic of Lithuania.

2. Journalists must:

1) provide correct, accurate and impartial news, critically assess the sources of their information, check facts closely and attentively, refer to several sources. If it is impossible to verify the reliability of the source of information, this must be indicated in the published information;

2) authorise information prepared for dissemination for the first time if this is requested by the person who has submitted the information;

3) refuse an assignment by the producer, disseminator of public information, their participant or a responsible person appointed by them if such an assignment compels to violate the laws or the Code of Ethics of Lithuanian Journalists and Publishers;

4) adhere in their activities to the basic principles of provision of information to the public and observe the norms of professional ethics of journalists;

5) gather and publish information only by ethical and legal means;

6) when requesting information, introduce their surname, indicate their workplace (type of the media and/or a programme for which a reportage is being produced) and their post; they must also warn the person that his words may be made public in the media;

7) not put pressure on an information source and not offer remuneration for the information;

8) prior to interviewing a child, get consent from at least one of his parents, guardians or custodians as well as from the child himself;

9) not use audio and video recording means if this is objected by a private person providing information;

10) observe the duties specified in paragraph 8 of Article 22 of this Law.

Article 42. Duty to Provide Information

1. Producers and disseminators of public information, state and municipal institutions and agencies must provide information (including the tapes of broadcast programmes) free of charge to the regulatory and self-regulatory bodies governing the activities of producers and disseminators of public information referred to in Chapter V of this Law which is necessary for the exercise of their functions.

2. Information relating to personal data processed by producers and disseminators of public information which is provided to the regulatory and self-regulatory bodies referred to in paragraph 1 of this Article must be used in compliance with the Law on Legal Protection of Personal Data.

3. Producers and disseminators of public information must provide persons with information (including the tapes of broadcast programmes) the publication of which, in the opinion of the aforementioned persons, degrades their honour and dignity or has damaged their professional reputation or other legitimate interests. Applications for the provision of information shall be filed with the producers and/or disseminators of public information in writing. The producers and/or disseminators of public information may charge a fee for providing the requested information. The amount of such fees may not exceed the costs of making a copy of the requested information.

4. The provisions of paragraphs 4 and 5 of Article 6 of this Law shall apply to producers and disseminators of public information who provide information to the entities specified in paragraphs 1 and 3 of this Article.

Article 43. Professional Ethics in Providing Information to the Public

1. The norms of professional ethics which have to be adhered to by producers and disseminators of public information and journalists shall be defined in the Code of Ethics of Lithuanian Journalists and Publishers (hereinafter referred to as the “Code”), the Resolution on the Ethics of Journalism adopted by the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe, also by the treaties of the Republic of Lithuania regulating the production and dissemination of public information and this Law.

2. The Code shall be approved, amended or supplemented by the meeting of representatives of journalists and publishers organisations (hereinafter referred to as the “meeting of representatives”). It shall be convened and attended by the Ethics Commission of Journalists and Publishers; the said meeting shall also be attended by representatives of other journalists and publishers organisations. The meeting of representatives shall approve, amend or supplement the Code in compliance with the rules of procedure of the meeting. It shall be approved by a simple majority vote by the meeting of representatives on the proposal of the Ethics Commission of Journalists and Publishers.

Article 44. Refutation of Published Information

1. The norms of the Civil Code shall provide for the duty of the media to refute the published false information which degrades the honour and dignity of a natural person or has damaged the professional reputation of a legal person, the conditions and procedure for refuting such information as well as civil liability of producers and/or disseminators of public information.

2. If the false information has been announced through the media (in the press, on television, radio, etc.), a person about whom such information has been announced shall have the right to write out refutation which must specify which published information contradicts reality, when and where it was announced, which statements of the published information degrade the honour and dignity of the natural person or damage the professional reputation of the legal person, and to demand that the media which disseminated such information publish the refutation.

3. Upon receiving the refutation specified in paragraph 2 of this Article, it must be published free of charge of the same size and in the same form as the false information degrading the honour and dignity of the natural person or damaging the professional reputation of the legal person or published by any other adequate means within a period of two weeks, with the exception of the media the periodicity of which is less frequent. In that case, the aforementioned refutation shall be published in the first programme of the National Radio of Lithuania (within a period of two weeks) and in the first publication or programme of the media after the receipt of the refutation, without comments, in the same place, of the same size and in the same form (television and radio – on the same day of the week and at the same time) as the false information degrading the honour and dignity of the natural person or damaging the professional reputation of the legal person. The media must publish the response regardless of whether the information disseminated through them was disseminated on behalf of the media or any other person.

4. If upon receipt of the refutation referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article, the media decide not to publish such refutation, they must, within a period of two weeks of the receipt of the refutation, reply in writing to a person who has submitted the refutation indicating the reasons and motives for refusal to publish the refutation.

5. The requirements specified in paragraph 3 of this Article must also be adhered to in cases where the media, of their own free will, publish the refutation of false information degrading the honour and dignity of the natural person or damaging the professional reputation of the legal person.

6. Refusal to publish or otherwise announce the refutation referred to in paragraph 2 of this Article in the manner prescribed in paragraphs 3-5 of this Article may be appealed against in court according to the place of residence of the person whose honour and dignity has been degraded by the false information, or according to the place of registration of the head office of the legal person whose professional reputation has been damaged by the false information. A complaint must be examined not later than within 30 days of its lodgement; non-working days shall also be included in this time limit.

CHAPTER V
REGULATORY AND SELF-REGULATORY BODIES GOVERNING THE ACTIVITIES OF PRODUCERS AND DISSEMINATORS OF PUBLIC INFORMATION

Article 45. Powers of the Institution Authorised by the Government in the Field of Provision of Information to the Public

1. The implementation of state policy in the field of provision of information to the public shall be coordinated by an institution authorised by the Government.

2. The institution authorised by the Government shall perform the following functions:

1) summarise the practice of application of laws and other legal acts governing the provision of information to the public and submit proposals regarding the drafting of laws and other legal acts as well as amending and supplementing of the effective legal acts;

2) in cooperation with organisations of producers and disseminators of public information, draft laws and other legal acts proposed by the Government in the field of provision of information to the public;

3) in cooperation with other institutions and organisations operating in the field of provision of information to the public, implement the provisions of treaties of the Republic of Lithuania related to the provision of information to the public;

11) carry out monitoring of public information in the media, except for monitoring of radio and television programmes.

2. In performing the functions specified in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Inspector shall have the right to:

1) having information about violations that have not been specified in the complaints (applications), on his own initiative commence an investigation in accordance with the procedure set forth by this Law or refer the collected material to other competent state institutions for investigation;

2) in accordance with the procedure established by this Law, obtain free of charge information from producers and disseminators of public information, including information published in the media managed by them (video and audio recordings of broadcast programmes, specimen of publications and copies thereof) necessary for the exercise of his functions;

3) obtain information, documents and other material necessary for the exercise of his functions from state and municipal institutions and agencies free of charge;

4) in accordance with the procedure set forth by laws, however only to the extent it is necessary to perform his functions, get access to documents constituting a state, official, commercial or bank secret, also documents containing information about personal data protected by laws;

5) without violating the rights and legitimate interests of persons, film, make photographs, sound and video recordings and use any other technical means during investigations in accordance with the procedure prescribed by laws;

6) attend the sittings and meetings organised by the Seimas, the Government and other state institutions, take part in the activities of commissions and working groups set up by them, attend the meetings of regulatory and self-regulatory bodies governing the activities of producers and disseminators of public information when issues related to the implementation of the provisions of this Law, the activities of the Inspector or an investigation carried out by him are considered and express his opinion on the issues;

7) set up working groups and commissions for drafting legal acts and proposals, organising events and considering other relevant issues;

8) for the purpose of exercising the functions laid down in this Law and other laws, enlist the assistance of experts (groups of experts), establish their rules of procedure as well as payment procedure.

3. In performing the functions specified in paragraph 1 of this Article, the Inspector may take the following decisions:

1) issue a warning to producers and disseminators of public information, (natural) persons responsible for the content of the media about the noticed violations of this Law and other legal acts governing the provision of information to the public and request that they be eliminated;

2) request that a producer or disseminator of public information refute, in accordance with the established procedure, the published false information degrading the honour and dignity of a person or damaging his professional reputation or legitimate interests, or provide the person with a possibility to reply and refute such information himself;

3) apply to the competent state institutions and the Ethics Commission of Journalists and Publishers regarding the noticed violations of this Law and other legal acts governing the provision of information to the public;

4) draw up reports of administrative offences in the cases set out in the Code of Administrative Offences;

5) consider cases of administrative offences and impose administrative penalties in the cases set out in the Code of Administrative Offences;

6) recognise the complaint (application) as unjustified;

7) terminate the investigation commenced on own initiative if the violations or circumstances due to which the investigation was started have not been corroborated;

8) refuse to investigate the complaint (application);

9) terminate the examination of the complaint (application).

4. A complaint (application) submitted to the Inspector must specify:

1) the name, surname and address of the person (applicant) who has lodged the complaint (application);

2) the specific media and publication or a part of programme which contained the information degrading the honour and dignity of the person (applicant) who has lodged the complaint (application), violating the person's right to protection of privacy or the interests of minors;

3) what disseminated information contradicts reality, in what way the right to privacy has been violated and the interests of minors have been affected;

4) the content of the application to the Inspector;

5) the date of writing of the complaint (application) and the signature of the person (applicant) who has lodged the complaint (application).

5. The complaint (application) which does not contain at least one of the requirements specified in paragraph 4 of this Article shall not be examined unless the Inspector decides otherwise. In the event that the Inspector refuses to examine the complaint (application) due to the shortcomings of content requirements, the person (applicant) shall be informed thereof within five working days specifying the shortcomings. Upon elimination of the shortcomings, the person's (applicant's) complaint (application) shall be accepted for examination with the date of lodgement thereof considered to be the date of receipt of the complaint (application) meeting all the requirements.

6. In the cases referred to in subparagraphs 1-3 of paragraph 1 of this Article, the Inspector shall only examine complaints (applications) lodged by persons whose rights have been violated in the media or the legal representatives as well as appointed representatives of such persons. In these cases, anonymous complaints (applications) shall not be investigated.

7. In the case referred to in subparagraph 4 of paragraph 1 of this Article, the Inspector shall examine the complaints (applications) lodged not only by persons whose rights have been violated in the media or their legal representatives, but also complaints (applications) lodged by other persons, including anonymous complaints (applications). In that case, the Inspector may start an investigation on his own initiative.

8. Written or oral appeals, applications and notifications by the persons (applicants) concerned which do not contain complaints against the actions of producers and/or disseminators of public information, but only request to provide explanations, information or required documents, to express an opinion or submit a conclusion regarding the implementation of the provisions of this Law shall not be considered as complaints (applications).

9. The Inspector shall refuse to examine a complaint (application) and shall return it to the person (applicant) who has lodged the complaint (application) where:

1) investigation of the circumstances specified in the complaint (application) falls outside the scope of competence of the Inspector. In this case, the complaint (application) shall, within five working days, be forwarded to an entity of public administration which has the required powers and the person (applicant) who has lodged the complaint (application) shall be informed thereof. Where an institution competent to examine the complaint (application) of a person is a court, the complaint (application) shall be returned to the person (applicant) who has lodged the complaint (application) and the necessary information shall be provided;

2) upon commencing the examination of the complaint (application), it transpires that the complaint (application) in relation to the same issue is pending in court; In that case, the examination of the complaint (application) shall be suspended until the complaint (application) has been investigated by the court. The person who has lodged the complaint (application) shall be informed of the suspension of examination of the complaint (application). In that case, the investigation of the complaint (application) shall be renewed only upon request of the person (applicant) and upon notifying the Inspector thereof in writing;

3) the court or the Inspector have already taken a decision on the same issue and the person (applicant) has not provided any new factual data allowing to appeal against the decision. In that case, the person (applicant) shall be informed of the decision not to examine the complaint (application) within five working days from the date of receipt of the complaint (application);

4) it is impossible to commence the investigation of the complaint (application) due to the shortage of data and when requested, the person (applicant) who has lodged the complaint (application) does not provide the data necessary for the investigation of the complaint (application) or is unable to provide them for objective reasons;

5) a procedural decision has been adopted to institute criminal proceedings in relation to the subject matter of the complaint (application);

6) the person (applicant) withdraws the complaint (application) and informs the Inspector thereof in writing.

10. In the case specified in subparagraph 6 of paragraph 9 of this Article, where a person (applicant) withdraws a part of the claims from his complaint (application), only that part of the complaint (application) from which no claims have been withdrawn shall be examined.

11. In the event that a decision to refuse to examine the complaint (application) is taken, the person (applicant) who has lodged the complaint (application) must be notified of the reasons for such refusal.

12. The investigation of a complaint (application) shall be terminated if circumstances specified in paragraph 9 of this Article transpire in the course of investigation.

13. The Inspector shall examine the complaint (application) received within three months of receipt thereof.

14. If a complaint (application) is justified, the Inspector may take one of the decisions specified in paragraph 2 of this Article. The Inspector shall communicate the decision to the person (applicant) who has lodged the complaint (application), producers and/or disseminators of public information, persons responsible for the content of the media.

15. In cases where a complaint (application) is considered unjustified, the Inspector must provide a reasoned reply in writing to the person (applicant) who has lodged the complaint (application).

16. The decisions of the Inspector, except for the cases specified in paragraph 17 of this Article, shall be published free of charge in the supplement Informaciniai pranešimai to the official gazette Valstybės žinios and on the website of the Office of the Inspector of Journalist Ethics. In such cases, the operative part of the Inspector's decision must be forthwith published in the same media wherein the Inspector established the violation.

17. In cases where the publication of the Inspector's decision may violate the rights and/or legitimate interests of the person or where the person (applicant) who has lodged the complaint (application) does not request to publish the decision, the Inspector's decision shall not be made public. In such cases, the Inspector's decision shall only be communicated to the person (applicant) who has lodged the complaint (application) and the producer and/or disseminator of public information who manages the media wherein the violation was established.

18. The decisions of the Inspector may be appealed against in court within 30 days of their publication or, where the decision is not made public, of receipt of the notification of adoption thereof.

19. Failure to comply with the lawful requirements of and decisions adopted by the Inspector or any other hindrance of the Inspector in exercising the rights or powers granted to him by this Law shall incur administrative liability.

CHAPTER VI
LIABILITY FOR VIOLATIONS OF LEGAL ACTS REGULATING
THE PROVISION OF INFORMATION TO THE PUBLIC AND THE PROCEDURE FOR IMPLEMENTATION THEREOF

Article 51. Liability of Producers and Disseminators of Public Information and Officials

1. A producer or disseminator of public information shall, in accordance with the procedure established by this Law and other laws, be liable for violating this Law and other laws and treaties of the Republic of Lithuania regulating the production of public information, also for violating the procedure for dissemination of public information established by laws.

2. The manager of the information society media shall be liable for the content thereof in the manner prescribed by this Law and other laws.

3. Providers of intermediate information society services shall be liable for the content of the information society media in accordance with the procedure and conditions set out in the Law on Information Society Services.

Article 52. Suspension or Termination of Activities of Producers and/or Disseminators of Public Information

1. The activities of a producer and/or disseminator of public information, except for broadcasters and/or re-broadcasters of radio and/or television programmes, may be temporarily suspended or terminated by the court if the producer and/or disseminator of public information violate the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 19 of this Law.

2. When taking a decision on the temporary suspension of activities of a producer and/or disseminator of public information, the suspension term set by the court may not exceed one month with respect to newspaper editorial offices and three months with respect to magazine editorial offices.

3. The activities of a producer and/or disseminator of public information may be terminated by the court if the court has already suspended their activities at least once during the previous 12 months.

Article 53. Compensation for Damage

Damage incurred due to violations of this Law shall be compensated in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Civil Code.

Article 54. Exemption from Editorial Responsibility and Compensation for Damage

1. Editorial responsibility shall not apply to a producer and/or disseminator of public information and they shall not be held liable for publication of false information where they have indicated the source of information and it has been:

1) provided in official or publicly available documents of state and municipal institutions and agencies, political parties, trade unions and associations or other persons;

2) publicly stated in open meetings, sessions, press conferences, demonstrations and other events, and the producer of public information has not distorted the statements made. In this case, all responsibility shall fall on the organisers of the aforementioned events and persons who have made the information public;

3) published earlier in other media if the information has not been refuted in the media wherein it has been published;

4) published by participants of live programmes and internet conferences, viewers of interactive television or users of information society media who are not related to the producer of public information;

5) published in a special election campaign programme which has not been produced by the producer of public information;

6) presented in non-anonymous advertising announcements;

7) presented in the form of an opinion, commentary or evaluation.

2. In the cases specified in paragraph 1 of this Article, liability for the publication of false information shall fall upon those who were the first to publish such information.

I promulgate this Law passed by the Seimas of the Republic of Lithuania.
