

A BILL

FOR

AN ACT TO MAKE PUBLIC RECORDS AND INFORMATION MORE FREELY AVAILABLE, PROVIDE FOR PUBLIC ACCESS TO PUBLIC RECORDS AND INFORMATION, PROTECT PUBLIC RECORDS AND INFORMATION TO THE EXTENT CONSISTENT WITH THE PUBLIC INTEREST AND THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL PRIVACY, PROTECT SERVING PUBLIC OFFICERS FROM ADVERSE CONSEQUENCES FOR DISCLOSING CERTAIN KINDS OF OFFICIAL INFORMATION WITHOUT AUTHORIZATION AND ESTABLISH PROCEDURES FOR THE ACHIEVEMENT OF THOSE PURPOSES AND RELATED PURPOSES THEREOF, 2011

[] Commencement

BE IT ENACTED by the National Assembly of the Federal Republic of Nigeria as follows—

1. This Bill may be cited as the Freedom of Information Bill, 2011. Short title.

2. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other Act, Law or Regulation, the right of any person to access or request information, whether or not contained in any written form, which is in the custody or possession of any public official, agency or institution howsoever described, is hereby established. Right of access to records.

(2) An applicant herein need not demonstrate any specific interest in the information being applied for.

(3) Any person entitled to the right to information under this Bill, shall have the right to institute proceedings in a Court to compel any public institution to comply with the provisions of this Bill.

3. (1) A public institution shall ensure that it records and keeps information about all its activities, operations and businesses. Information about government institutions.

(2) A public institution shall ensure the proper organization and maintenance of all information in its custody in a manner that facilitates public access to such information.

(3) A public institution shall cause to be published in accordance with subsection (4) of this section, the following information-
 - (a) a description of the organization and responsibilities of the institution including details of the programmes and functions of each division, branch and department of the institution;
 - (b) a list of all classes of records under the control of the institution in sufficient detail to facilitate the exercise of the right to information under this Bill;
 - (c) a list of all manuals used by employees of the institution in administering or carrying out any of the programmes or activities of the institution;

(d) a description of documents containing final opinions including concurring and dissenting opinions as well as orders made in the adjudication of cases;

(e) documents containing substantive rules of the institution;

(f) documents containing statements and interpretations of policy which have been adopted by the institution;

(g) documents containing final planning policies, recommendations, and decisions;

(h) documents containing factual reports, inspection reports, and studies whether prepared by or for the institution;

(i) documents containing information relating to the receipt or expenditure of public or other funds of the institution;

(j) documents containing the names, salaries, titles, and dates of employment of all employees and officers of the institution;

(k) documents containing the rights of the state, public institutions, or of any private person(s);

(l) documents containing the name of every official and the final records of voting in all proceedings of the institution;

(m) a list of files containing applications for any contract, permit, grants, licenses or agreement;

(n) a list of reports, documents, studies, or publications prepared by independent contractors for the institution;

(o) a list of materials containing information relating to any grant or contract made by or between the institution and another public institution or private organization; and

(p) the title and address of the appropriate officer of the institution to whom an application for information under this Bill should be sent, provided that the failure of any public institution to publish any information under this subsection shall not prejudicially affect the public's right of access to information in the custody of such public institution.

(4) A public institution shall ensure that information referred to in this section is widely disseminated and made readily available to members of the public through various means, including print, electronic and online sources, and at the offices of such public institutions.

(5) A public institution shall update and review information required to be published under this section periodically, and immediately whenever changes occur.

(6) Any person entitled to the right of access conferred by this Bill shall have the right to institute proceedings in a Court to compel any public institution to comply with the provisions of this section.

(7) Public institutions are all authorities whether executive, legislative or judicial agencies, ministries, and extra-ministerial departments of the government, together with all corporations established by law and all companies in which government has a controlling interest, and also, private companies utilizing public funds, providing public services or performing public functions

4. (1) An application for access to a record or information under this Bill shall be made in accordance with section 2 of this Bill.

Request for access to records.

(2) For the purpose of this Bill, any information or record applied for under this Bill that does not exist in print but can by regulation be produced from a machine, normally used by the government or public institution shall be deemed to be record under the control of the Government or public institution.

(3) Illiterate or disabled applicants who by virtue of their illiteracy or disability are unable to make an application for access to information or record in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) above, may make that application through a third party.

(4) An authorized official of a government or public institution to whom an applicant makes an oral application for information or record, shall reduce the application into writing in the form prescribed under subsection (1) above and shall provide a copy of the written application to the applicant.

5. Where information is applied for under this Bill, the public institution to which the application is made shall, subject to sections 6, 7, and 8 of this Bill, within 7 days after the application is received –

Time for granting or refusing application.

(a) make the information available to the applicant;

(b) where the public institution considers that the application should be denied, the institution shall give written notice to the applicant that access to all or part of the information will not be granted, stating reasons for the denial, and the section of this Bill under which the denial is made.

6. (1) Where a public institution receives an application for access to information, and the institution is of the view that another public institution has greater interest in the information, the institution to which the application is made may within 3 days but not later than 7 days after the application is received, transfer the application, and if necessary, the information, to the other public institution, in which case, the institution transferring the application shall give written notice of the transfer to the applicant, which notice shall contain a statement informing the applicant that such decision to transfer the application can be reviewed by a Court.

Transfer of application.

(2) Where an application is transferred under subsection (1), the application shall be deemed to have been made to the public institution to which it was transferred on the day the public institution received it.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (1), a public institution has “a greater interest” in information if—

(a) the information was originally produced in or for the institution; or

(b) in the case of information not originally produced in or for the public institution, the institution was the first public institution to receive the information.

7. The public institution may extend the time limit set out in section 5 or subsection 6 (1) in respect of an application for a time not exceeding 7 days; if—

Extension of time limit for granting or refusing application.

(a) the application is for a large number of records and meeting the original time limit would unreasonably interfere with the operations of the public institution; or

(b) consultations are necessary to comply with the application that cannot reasonably be completed within the original time limit, by giving notice of the extension stating whether the extension falls under the circumstances set out in paragraphs (a) or (b), which notice shall contain a statement that the applicant has a right to have the decision to extend the time limit reviewed by a Court.

8. (1) Where the government or public institution refuses to give access to a record or information applied for under this Bill, or a part thereof, the institution shall state in the notice given to the applicant the grounds for the refusal, the specific provision of this Bill that it relates to and that the applicant has a right to challenge the decision refusing access and have it reviewed by a Court.

Where access is refused.

(2) Any notification of denial of any application for information or records shall set forth the names, designation and signature, of each person responsible for the denial of such application.

(3) The government or public institution shall be required to indicate under subsection (1) whether the information or record exists.

(4) Where the government or public institution fails to give access to information or record applied for under this Bill or part thereof within the time limit set out in this Bill, the institution shall, for the purposes of this Bill, be deemed to have refused to give access.

(5) Where a case of wrongful denial of access is established, the defaulting officer or institution shall on conviction be liable to a fine of N500,000.00 (Five hundred thousand naira)

- 9. Fees shall be limited to standard charges for document duplication and transcription where necessary. Fees.
- 10. (1) Every government or public institution shall ensure that it keeps every information or record about the institution's operations, personnel, activities and other relevant or related information or records. Record keeping and maintenance of records.
- (2) Every government or public institution shall ensure the proper organization and maintenance of all information or record in its custody, in a manner that facilitates public access to such information or record under this Bill.
- 11. It shall be a criminal offence punishable on conviction by a competent Court with a minimum of 1 year imprisonment for any officer or the head of any government or public institution to which this Bill applies to willfully destroy any records kept in his/her custody or attempts to doctor or otherwise alter same before they are released to any person, entity or community applying for it. Destruction or falsification of records.
- 12. (1) A public institution may deny an application for any information the disclosure of which may be injurious to the conduct of international affairs and the defence of the Federal Republic of Nigeria. Exemption of international affairs and defence.
- (2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an application for information shall not be denied where the public interest in disclosing the information outweighs whatever injury disclosure would cause.
- 13. (1) A public institution may deny an application for any information which contains— Exemption of law enforcement and investigation.
- (a) records compiled by any public institution for administrative enforcement proceedings and by any law enforcement or correctional agency for law enforcement purposes or for internal matters of a public institution, but only to the extent that disclosure would—
- (i) interfere with pending or actual and reasonably contemplated law enforcement proceedings conducted by any law enforcement or correctional agency;
- (ii) interfere with pending administrative enforcement proceedings conducted by any public institution;
- (iii) deprive a person of a fair trial or an impartial hearing;
- (iv) unavoidably disclose the identity of a confidential source;
- (v) constitute an invasion of personal privacy under section 15 of this Bill, however, where the interest of the public would be better served by having such record being made available, this exemption to disclosure shall not apply;

(vi) obstruct an ongoing criminal investigation;

(b) information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to be injurious to the security of penal institutions:

Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, an application for information shall not be denied where the public interest in disclosing the information outweighs whatever injury that disclosure would cause.

(2) A public institution may deny an application for information that could reasonably be expected to facilitate the commission of an offence.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (1) (a), “Investigation” means an investigation that—

(a) pertains to the administration or enforcement of any Acts, law or regulation;

(b) is authorized by or pursuant to any Acts, law or regulation.

14. Every government or public institution must ensure the provision of appropriate training for its officials on the public’s right to access to information or records held by government or public institutions, as provided for in this Bill and for the effective implementation of this Bill.

Training of officials on the right to information and on the effective implementation of this Bill.

15. (1) Subject to subsection (2), a public institution shall deny an application for information that contains personal information. Information exempted under this subsection shall include –

Exemption of personal information.

(i) files and personal information maintained with respect to clients, patients, residents, students, or other individuals receiving social, medical, educational, vocational, financial, supervisory or custodial care or services directly or indirectly from public institutions;

(ii) personnel files and personal information maintained with respect to employees, appointees or elected officials of any public institution or applicants for such positions;

(iii) files and personal information maintained with respect to any applicant, registrant or licensee by any government and/or public institution cooperating with or engaged in professional or occupational registration, licensure or discipline;

(iv) information required of any tax payer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax unless disclosure is otherwise requested by statute; and

(v) information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with or provide information to administrative, investigative, law enforcement or penal agencies on the commission of any crime.

(2) A public institution shall disclose any information that contains personal information if –

(a) the individual to whom it relates consents to the disclosure;

(b) the information is publicly available.

(3) Where disclosure of any information referred to in this section would be in the public interest, and if the public interest in the disclosure of such information clearly outweighs the protection of the privacy of the individual to whom such information relates, the public institution to whom a request for disclosure is made shall disclose such information subject to section 13 (2) of this Bill.

16. (1) A public institution shall deny an application for information that contains –

Exemption of third party
information.

(a) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person or business where such trade secrets or information are proprietary, privileged or confidential, or where disclosure of such trade secrets or information may cause harm to the interests of the third party:

Provided that nothing contained in this subsection shall be construed as preventing a person or business from consenting to disclosure;

(b) information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to interfere with the contractual or other negotiations of a third party;

(c) proposal and bids for any contract, grants, or agreement, including information which if it were disclosed would frustrate procurement or give an advantage to any person.

(2) A public institution shall not, pursuant to subsection (1), deny disclosure of a part of a record if that part contains the result or product of environmental testing carried out by or on behalf of a public institution.

(3) Where the public institution discloses information, or a part thereof, that contains the results of a product or environmental testing, the institution shall at the same time as the information or part thereof is disclosed provide the applicant with a written explanation of the methods used in conducting the test.

(4) A public institution shall disclose any information described in paragraph (1) (a), (b) and (c) if that disclosure would be in the public interest as it relates to public health, public safety or protection of the environment and, if the public interest in the disclosure clearly outweighs in importance any financial loss or gain to, or prejudice to the competitive position of or interference with contractual or other negotiation of a third party.

- 17. A public institution may deny an application for information that is subject to the following privileges-
- (a) Legal Practitioner-Client privilege;
 - (b) Health Workers-Client privilege;
 - (c) Journalism confidentiality privileges; and
 - (d) Any other professional privileges conferred by an Act.
- 18. A public institution may deny an application for information which contains course materials or research materials prepared by faculty members.
- 19. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Bill, where an application is made to a public institution for information which is exempted from disclosure by virtue of this Bill, the institution shall disclose any part of the information that does not contain such exempted information.
- 20. A public institution may deny an application for information that contains information pertaining to –
- (a) test questions, scoring keys and other examination data used to administer an academic examination or determine the qualifications of an application for a license or employment;
 - (b) architects’ and engineers’ plans for buildings not constructed in whole or in part with public funds and for buildings constructed with public funds, to the extent that disclosure would compromise security; and
 - (c) library circulation and other records identifying library users with specific materials:
- Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, an application for information shall not be denied where the public interest in disclosing the information outweighs whatever injury that disclosure would cause.
- 21. Any applicant who has been denied access to information, or a part thereof may apply to the Court for a review of the matter within thirty days after the public institution denies or is deemed to have denied the application, or within such further time as the Court may either before or after the expiration of the thirty days fix or allow.
- 22. An application made under section 21 shall be heard and determined summarily.

Exemption of professional or other privileges conferred by law.

Exemption of course or research material.

Severability.

Denial by a public institution to disclose records.

Judicial review.

Hearing in a summary way.

- 23. Notwithstanding anything contrary contained in the Evidence Act, or any regulation made under it, the Court may, in the course of any proceedings before it arising from an application under section 21 of this Bill, examine any information to which this Bill applies, that is under the control of a public institution, and no such information may be withheld from the court on any ground. Access to information by court.
- 24. In any proceedings before the Court arising from an application under section 21, the Court shall take precaution, including when appropriate, receiving representations ex parte and conducting hearings in camera to avoid the disclosure by the Court or any person of any information or other material on a basis of which any public institution will be authorized to disclose the information applied for. Court to take precautions against disclosing information.
- 25. In any proceedings before the Court arising from an application under section 21, the burden of establishing that the public institution is authorized to deny an application for information or part thereof shall be on the public institution concerned. Burden of proof.
- 26. (1) Where a public institution denies an application for information, or a part thereof on the basis of a provision of this Bill, the Court shall order the institution to disclose the information or part thereof to the applicant — Order to disclose information.
- (i) if the Court determined that the institution is not authorized to deny the application for information; or
 - (ii) where the institution is so authorized, but the Court nevertheless determines that the institution did not have reasonable grounds on which to deny the application;
 - (iii) where the Court makes a finding that the interest of the public in having the record being made available is greater and more vital than the interest being served if the application is denied, in whatever circumstance.
- (2) Any order the Court makes in pursuance of this section may be made subject to such conditions as the Court deems appropriate.
- 27. This Bill does not apply to— Exempted materials.
- (a) published material or material available for purchase by the public;
 - (b) Library or museum material made or acquired and preserved solely for public reference or exhibition purposes; or
 - (c) material placed in the National Library, the National Museum or the non-public section of the National Archives of the Federal Republic of Nigeria on behalf of any person or organization other than a government and/or public institution.
- 28. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Criminal Code, Penal Code, the Official of Secrets Act, or any other enactment, no civil or criminal proceedings shall lie against an officer Protection of Public Officers, of any public institution, or against any person acting on behalf of a public institution, and no proceedings shall lie against such persons thereof, for the disclosure in good faith of any information, or any part thereof pursuant to this Bill, for any consequences that flow from that disclosure, or for the failure to give any notice required under this Bill, if care is taken to give the required notice. Cap. 77 LFN, 1990, Cap 245 LFN, 1990, Cap 335, 1990.

(2) Nothing contained in the Criminal Code or the Official Secrets Act shall prejudicially affect any public officer who, without authorization discloses to any person, any information which he reasonably believes to show –

- (a) a violation of any law, rule or regulation;
- (b) mismanagement, gross waste of funds, fraud, and abuse of authority; or
- (c) a substantial and specific danger to public health or safety notwithstanding that such information was not disclosed pursuant to the provision of this Bill.

(3) No civil or criminal proceedings shall lie against any person receiving the information or further disclosing it.

29. (1) The fact that any information in the custody of a public institution is kept by that institution under security classification or is classified document within the meaning of the Official Secrets Act does not preclude it from being disclosed pursuant to an application for disclosure thereof under the provisions of this Bill, but in every case the public institution to which the application is made shall decide whether such information is of a type referred to in sections 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 18, or 20 of this Bill. Documents under classification, Cap 335 LFN, 1990.

(2) If the public institution to which the application in subsection (1) is made, decides that such information is not a type mentioned in the sections referred to in subsection (1) hereof, access to such information shall be given to the applicant.

(3) If the public institution to which the application mentioned in subsection (1) is made decides that such information is of a type mentioned in sections referred to in subsection (1), he shall give notice to the applicant.

30. (1) On or before February 1 of each year, each public institution shall submit to the Attorney-General of the Federation a report which shall cover the preceding fiscal year and which shall include— Submission of reports.

- (a) the number of determinations made by the Public Institution not to comply with applications for information made to such public institution and the reasons for each such determinations;
- (b) the number of appeals made by persons under this Bill, and the reason for the action upon each appeal that results in a denial of information;

(c) a description of whether a court has upheld the decision of the public institution to withhold information under such circumstances and a concise description of the scope of any information withheld;

(d) the number of applications for information pending before the public institution as of October 31 of the preceding year and the median number of days that such application had been pending before the public institution as of that date;

(e) the number of applications for information received by the public institution and the number of applications which the public institution processed;

(f) the median number of days taken by the public institution to process different types of application for information;

(g) the total amount of fees collected by the public institution to process such applications; and

(h) the number of full-time staff of the public institution devoted to processing applications for information, and the total amount expended by the public institution for processing such applications.

(2) Each public institution shall make such report available to the public, among other means, by computer and telecommunications, or if computer and telecommunications means have not been established by the Government or Public Institution, by other electronic means.

(3) The Attorney-General shall make each report, which has been submitted to him, available to the public in hard copies, online and also at a single electronic access point.

(4) The Attorney General shall notify the Chairman and ranking minority member of the Committee on Government Reform Oversight of the House of Representatives and the Chairman and ranking minority member of the Committees on Government Affairs and the Judiciary of the Senate, not later than April of the year in which each such report is issued, of the existence of such report and make it available to them in hard copies as well as by electronic means.

(5) (a) The Attorney-General shall develop reporting and performance guidelines in connection with reports required by this section and may establish additional requirements for such reports as the Attorney-General determines may be useful.

(b) The Attorney General shall in his oversight responsibility under this Bill ensure that all institutions to which this Bill applies comply with the provisions of the Bill.

(6) The Attorney-General shall submit to the National Assembly an annual report on or before April 1 of each calendar year which shall include for the prior calendar year a listing of the number of cases arising under this Bill, the exemption involved in each case, the disposition of such cases, and the cost, fees, and penalties assessed.

(7) Such report shall also include detailed description of the efforts taken by the Ministry of Justice to encourage all government or public institutions to comply with this Act.

(8) For purposes of this section, the term –

(a) “government” includes any executive department, military department, government corporation, government controlled corporation, or other establishment in the executive branch of the government (including the Executive Office of the President), or any other arm of government, independent or regulatory government agency or public institution; and

(b) “information” means any term used in this Act in reference to information or record which includes any information that would be held by a government or public institution and information subject to the requirements of this Act, when maintained by any public institution in any format, including electronic format.

31. (1) This Bill is intended to complement and not replace existing procedures for access to public records and information and is not intended to limit in any way access to those types of officials information that have, hitherto, been normally available to the general public. Complimentary procedures.

(2) Where the question whether any public record and or information is to be made available, where that question arises under this Bill, the question shall be determined in accordance with the provision stated herein, unless otherwise exempted by this Bill.

32. In this Bill, unless the text otherwise requires – Interpretation.

“applicant” refers to any person who applies for information under this Bill;

“application” refers to any request for information made under this Bill;

“Court” means a High Court or Federal High Court respectively.

“Foreign State” means any State other than the Federal Republic of Nigeria;

“Information” includes all records, documents and information stored in whatever form, including written, electronic, visual images, sound, audio recording, etc.

“Public Institution” means any legislative, executive, judicial, administrative or advisory body of the Government, including boards, bureau, committees or commissions of the State, and any subsidiary body of those bodies including but not limited to committees and sub-committees which are supported in whole or in part by public fund or which expends public fund and private bodies providing public services, performing public functions or utilizing public funds;

“Public record or document” means a record in any form having been prepared, or having been or being used, received, possessed or under the control of any public or private bodies relating to maters of public interest and includes –

- (a) any writing on any material;
- (b) any information recorded or stored on other devices; and any material subsequently derived from information so recorded or stored;
- (c) any label, marking, or other writing that identifies or describes anything of which it forms part, or to which it is attached by any means;
- (d) any book, card, form, map, plan, graph, or drawing,
- (e) any photograph, film, negative, microfilm, tape, or other device in which one or more visual images are embodied so as to be capable (with or without the aid of some other equipment) of being reproduced;

“Minister” means the Minister charged with responsibility for information;

“Person” include a corporation sole, and also body of persons whether corporate or incorporate; acting individually or as a group;

“Personal Information” means any official information held about an identifiable person; but does not include information that bears on the public duties of public employees and officials.